Establish a Grievance Procedure for Resolutions

whereas; there has been a problem with resolutions in the past.
Such as, not notifying authors as to the disposition of the resolution.
Such as, notifying authors on very short notice as to time and place to testify on there resolution.
such as, not informing the author as to why the resolution was rejected.

Whereas; the Wisconsin Conservation Congress is a grassroots organization created to allow the individual to voice his opinion for need of change on varied subjects in the State of Wisconsin.

Whereas; at this time there's a problem with the follow-through of these resolutions.

Such as, committee chairman making the decision that the resolution is not in proper form, length, or other reasons, after these resolutions have already been analyzed for proper length an context and passed by the rules and regulations committee.

Whereas; some resolutions after passing on a vote in their counties are sent to their appropriate committees, and having passed at these committees and forwarded to the executive committee are not given the ability to be voted on by the general public.

Therefore be it resolved on this 10th day of April 2006 in Waushara County Wisconsin that the Wisconsin conservation Congress Rules and Regulations Committee take steps to set up a grievance procedure to review any resolution held in dispute after being rejected by the Executive Council in a timely manner so to facilitate the resolution to make It onto the spring questionnaire.
